Declaration of Conformity to Environmental Regulations Worldwide

As a global manufacturer and supplier of bearings, we are aiming to provide sustainable product solutions and providing responsible Environmental, Social, and Governance feedback to our business partners. Ritbearing Corp. is committed to protecting the environment and complies with applicable environmental regulations. In line with this commitment, Ritbearing Corp. has implemented value chain due diligence effort with its global suppliers and established material compliance procedures to campaign and track the use of all known toxins within our products.

Based on our production knowledge and declarations collected from the upstream supply chain, we hereby declare that our products do not contain any intentionally added chemicals listed within the following regulations throughout the world. The term “intentionally added” means “a chemical in a product that serves an intended function in the product component.”

This list includes but is not limited to the following regulations.

- RoHS 3 (EU 2015/863), 2025
- REACH 247, 2025
- Canada SOR/2012-285
- EPA Toxic Substance Control Act Section 6(h)
- Confirmation the products do not contain Asbestos.
- Confirmation the products do not contain Mercury.
- EU Persistent Organic Pollutants No 2019/1021
- EPA TSCA Section 8(a)(7) PFAS
- Australia Industrial Chemicals Environmental Management Act 2021 and its amendments (AU POPs)
- Japan Chemical Substances Control Law
- CA Prop 65
- Conflict of Minerals (Dodd-Frank)

We understand that these chemicals are persistent and bio-accumulative in the environment and generate adverse effects on human health. Therefore, Ritbearing Corp. has taken proactive measures to ensure our products comply with ongoing legislative effort in all parts of the world. We are committed to continuously monitoring and improving our material compliance process to ensure our products are compliant.

Please do not hesitate to contact our Environmental Compliance Team for any further questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Michael Lawless
